Select Committee on Texas Ports, Innovation & Infrastructure
Texas ports connect to global markets across a vast array of industries. The advent of “megaships,” expansion of the Panama Canal, and Mexico’s project to reform its energy sector are transforming global transportation networks and markets. To ensure Texas is able to take full advantage of these innovations and other economic opportunities presented by its ports, the Committee shall review Texas ports’ infrastructure including inland borders and border ports of entry. The Committee shall also analyze changes to the global trade landscape and the preparedness of Texas ports and border ports of entry to capitalize on those changes. Further, the Committee shall identify the near- and long-term challenges facing Texas ports and border points of entry and propose solutions to address those needs.

Committee Members: Deshotel, Joe, Chair
Paul, Dennis, Vice-Chair
Faircloth, Wayne
Goldman, Craig
King, Tracy
Morrison, Geanie
Oliveira, René
Ortega, Evelina "Lina"
Phelan, Dade
