Environmental Awareness Roundtable

Environmental Education in Schools

Join us at the next Environmental Roundtable as Sally Wall, Science Specialist at Clear Creek ISD, unveils the truth about working with teachers and school districts. Getting access to the classroom can be a daunting task, but the impact that you can have on young lives is worth the effort. As an award-winning educator who truly is a "who's who" of our region in environmental education, Ms. Wall is uniquely qualified to de-mystify working with school districts and give us practical tips and tricks on things like getting into the classroom and getting the children out for field trips.
