Water Development Board approves $170M in projects

The Texas Water Development Board (TWDB) has allocated financial assistance totaling $169,555,000 for water-related projects.

The agency is responsible for collecting and disseminating water-related data, assisting with regional planning and preparing the State Water Plan for developing the state's water resources.

Projects funded and the funding source include:

- $30,390,000 loan from the Clean Water State Revolving Fund to finance wastewater system improvements for the City of Sugar Land (Fort Bend County);
- $11,425,000 loan from the Clean Water State Revolving Fund-Disadvantaged Communities Program to finance wastewater system improvements for the City of Burnet (Burnet County);
- A grant not to exceed $2,000,000 from the Water Loan Assistance Fund to finance costs associated with the design, construction and re-location of the Boeye Reservoir for the City of McAllen (Hidalgo County);
- $5,290,000 loan from the Texas Water Development Fund to finance construction of a water supply project for the Greater Texoma Utility Authority (Collin County);
- $22,000,000 loan from the Water Infrastructure Fund to finance construction of a water supply project for the Brazos River Authority (McLennan County);
- $1,935,000 loan from the Water Infrastructure Fund to finance development costs for a water supply project for the City of Corsicana (Navarro County);
- $21,500,000 loan from the Water Infrastructure Fund to finance development costs for a water supply project for the San Jacinto River Authority (Montgomery County);
- $43,980,000 loan from the Water Infrastructure Fund to finance water system improvements for the North Texas Municipal Water District (Kaufman and Collin Counties); and
- $31,035,000 loan from the Water Infrastructure Fund and Water Infrastructure Fund-Rural Program to finance construction of a water supply project for the Somervell County Water District (Somervell County).
