

Person-Directed Mobility Management and Independent Living Coaches Program

Bridging the Gap Between the Disability Community and Transportation Mobility Managers

Person-Directed Mobility Management and Independent Living Coaches Program

Program Description

- Funding from the Easter Seals Transportation Group
- Partnering with the National Council on Independent Living and the Association of Programs for Rural Independent Living
- Serving as a resource to mobility managers
- Focusing on person-directed mobility management strategies
- Sharing lessons learned

Program Purpose

- Create a network of mobility management independent living coaches
- Understand the needs of mobility managers
- Educate and provide resources to mobility managers

Program Goal

- Build bridges between independent living coaches and mobility managers
- Increase and enhance the delivery of person-directed mobility management services

- Understanding Independent Living History and Philosophy
- Building a Collaborative Community
- Enhancing Transportation Options
- Linking Mobility Management with Issues Unique to the Disability Community

Develop Working Partnerships

- Develop transportation strategies using independent living philosophy
- Engage transportation community in collaborations
- Improve funding for accessible transportation
- Build upon success to address disability issues

Next Steps – Let's Connect

- New to serving people with disabilities
- Interested in my personal perspective
- Challenges in serving particular individuals
- Person-directed mobility management services
- Disability and transportation collaborations
- Funding sources and accessible transportation
- Mobility management promising practices

Free Consultation

Chamane Barrow
1104 D East Mulberry
Angleton, Texas 77515
cbarrow@cbfl.cc