

2018 Call for Projects

Background

At the May TAC meeting staff reviewed the revised Investment Categories, project evaluation process and available funding for the 2018 Call for Projects. Based on the discussion and feedback received from the TAC members, staff is continuing to further develop the Benefit/Cost Analysis Templates and refine the evaluation criteria.

Staff is proposing to begin the 2018 Call for Projects on July 30, 2018 and end on September 28, 2018. Staff will discuss the revised Call for projects schedule and the comments received from various TAC members on the evaluation criteria at the June meeting.
