

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF PAULETTE SHELTON TO THE TRANSPORTATION POLICY COUNCIL

Background

Paulette Shelton served on the Transportation Policy Council representing Fort Bend County from 2008 until April 2019. She also served on the Technical Advisory Committee representing Rural Transit from 1996 through 2019.

Paulette was awarded Outstanding Public Transportation General Manager from the Texas Transit Association in March 2019 and was awarded Outstanding Transit Demand Leadership for Continued Commitment to Excellence in Developing and Promoting Commuter Options from H-GAC in 2011.

Paulette was appointed Director of Fort Bend County's Public Transportation Department in 2005 with initial creation and expansion of services over the past 12 years. Paulette's significant experience in public transportation has resulted in her appointment to several transit taskforces and committees. Prior to her service to Fort Bend County, she was the public transportation director for the City of Galveston.

The TPC commends Paulette's distinguished service to Fort Bend County, to the Transportation Policy Council, and to the Houston-Galveston region. The TPC extends its gratitude for her service and wishes her continued success in all future endeavors.
