

7. TPC RESOLUTION OF COMMENDATION FOR STAFF MEMBER'S SERVICE

BACKGROUND

---

Ms. Aquina Grover began her employment with the Houston-Galveston Area Council in November 1977. She is the longest-serving member of the Metropolitan Planning Organization and the Houston-Galveston Area Council of Governments. In her role as a Senior Financial Analyst, Aquina has contributed to numerous essential behind the scenes activities and trained and mentored countless staff that keep the work of the MPO moving forward. During her tenure at H-GAC, the MPO area's population has nearly tripled, organizations such as The Metropolitan Transit Authority of Harris County (METRO) and Houston TranStar have been established, the region's first light rail and Bus Rapid Transit networks were constructed, and over 1200 miles of bikeways have been constructed, showcasing the growth of the work of the MPO that Ms. Grover has made immeasurable contributions to advance.

CURRENT SITUATION

In a gesture of immense gratitude, the Houston-Galveston Area Council Transportation Policy Council and staff would like to present Ms. Gover with a resolution recognizing her 48 years of service to the MPO and congratulate her on her retirement.

ACTION REQUESTED

Transportation Policy Council approval of Resolution No. 2026-03 Commending Staff Member's Service.
