Who is the Texas Municipal League?

The Texas Municipal League exists to provide legal advice on municipal matters, legislative representation on the state and federal levels, and training services and professional development to city governments in Texas.

Regular members include any city or town in the State of Texas. Associate members consist of councils of governments, public or school/university libraries, commercial or civic clubs, individuals, or corporations.

Who is TML Region 14?

TML Region 14 – San Jacinto Region is comprised of a 17-county area which includes the counties of Austin, Brazoria, Chambers, Colorado, Fort Bend, Galveston, Grimes, Harris, Houston, Madison, Matagorda, Montgomery, San Jacinto, Trinity, Walker, Waller, and Wharton.

TML Region 14 covers a large area of the state that includes urban, suburban, and rural communities that are located along the coast and inland with each having their own unique set of challenges and similarities. Members work collaboratively with their communities to address their citizens' needs and promote a regional approach to planning for the future.

What is the TML Region 14 Spring Meeting?

The TML Region 14 Spring Meeting is our annual event where local municipal elected officials and their staff, along with other interested parties, gather to socialize, exchange ideas, gain information on relevant topics of interest and receive updates on legislative concerns. During this Spring Meeting, we will focus on promoting effective economic and small business development and downtown revitalization through interaction and education.

How is the H-GAC connected to TML Region 14?

The Houston-Galveston Area Council serves as the Secretary-Treasurer for TML Region 14 and partners with the region to host meetings and workshops to further the mission of both organizations to better serve the Gulf Coast region through the cooperative exchange of information and services.
