RE: City of Bellaire Applications for CMAQ Commuter and Transit Services Pilot Programs

Dear Mr. Clark,

The purpose of this letter is to express support for the two City of Bellaire applications submitted for the Commuter and Transit Services Pilot Programs. The City of Bellaire is committed to improving mobility and recognizes the Houston-Galveston Area Council to be an invaluable partner in these efforts. To that end, should funding be made available to the City of Bellaire through this program, the City of Bellaire stands ready to provide a local match of twenty percent in accordance with the information provided in the applications. Should the position of the City of Bellaire on this matter change due to unforeseen circumstances, we will do our best to communicate that information to you and your team as quickly as possible.

Thank you for this opportunity and we look forward to a fruitful partnership. Should you need additional information beyond this letter, please contact Public Works Director Michael Leech at (713) 662 8154 or mleech@bellairetx.gov. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Andrew S. Friedberg
Mayor
